AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL,

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF

Colds, Coughs, and Hoarseness.

BRIMFIELD MASS 20th Dec, 1860. DR J C AYER: I do not hesitate to say the best remedy I have ever found for Coughs, Hoarseness, Influenza, and the concomitant symptoms of a Cold, is your CHERRY PECTORAL. Its constant use in my practice and my family for the last ten years has shown it to possess superior virtues for the treatment of these complaints. EBEN KNIGHT M D

A. B. MORTLEY, ESQ, of UTICA, N. Y. writes: "I have used your Pectoral myself and in my family ever since you invented it, and believe it the best medicine for its purpose ever put out. With a bad cold I should sooner pay twenty-five dollars for a bottle than do without it, or take any other remedy."

Croup, Whooping Cough, Influenza.

SPRINGFIELD, MISS, Feb 7, 1856. BROTHER AYER: I will cheerfully certify your PECTORAL is the best remedy we possess for the cure of Whooping Cough, Croup, and the chest diseases of children. We of your fraternity in the South appreciate your skill, and commend your medicine to our people. HIRAM CONKLIN, M. D.

AMOS LEE, Esq, MONTEREY, IA, writes, 3d Jan, 1856: "I had a tedious Influenza, which confined me in doors six weeks; took many medicines without relief; finally tried your PECTORAL by the advice of our clergyman. The first dose relieved the soreness in my throat and lungs; less than one half the bottle made me completely well. Your medicines are the cheapest as well as the best we can buy, and we esteem you, Doctor, and your remedies, as the poor man's friend."

Asthma or Phthisic, and Bronchitis.

WEST MANCHESTER, PA, Feb 4, 1856. SIR: Your CHERRY PECTORAL is performing marvellous cures in this section. It has relieved several from alarming symptoms of consumption, and is now curing a man who has labored under an affection of the lungs for the last forty years. HENRY L PARKS, Merchant.

A. A. RAMSEY, M. D., ALBION, MONROE CO., IOWA, writes, Sept. 6, 1855: "During my practice of many years I have found nothing equal to your CHERRY PECTORAL for giving ease and relief to consumptive patients, or curing such as are curable."

We might add volumes of evidence, but the most convincing proof of the virtues of this remedy is found in its effects upon trial.

Consumption.

Probably no one remedy has ever been known which cured so many and such dangerous cases as this. Some no human aid can reach; but even to those the CHERRY PECTORAL affords relief and comfort.

ASTOR HOUSE, NEW YORK CITY, March 5, 1856. DOCTOR AYER, LOWELL: I feel it a duty and a pleasure to inform you what your CHERRY PECTORAL has done for my wife. She had been five months laboring under the dangerous symptoms of Consumption, from which no aid we could procure gave her much relief. [illegible] until Dr Strong [illegible] for advice, recommended a trial of your medicine. We bless his kindness, as we do your skill, for she has recovered from that day. She is not yet as strong as she used to be, but is free from her cough, and calls herself well. Yours, with gratitude and regard, ORLANDO SHELBY, OF SHELBYVILLE.

Consumptives, do not despair till you have tried AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL. It is made by one of the best medical chemists in the world, and its cures all round us bespeak the high merits of its virtues.—Philadelphia Ledger.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills.

The sciences of Chemistry and Medicine have been taxed their utmost to produce this best, most perfect purgative which is known to man. Innumerable proofs are shown that these PILLS have virtues which surpass in excellence the ordinary medicines, and that they win unprecedentedly upon the esteem of all men. They are safe and pleasant to take, but powerful to cure. [illegible] purify the blood; they stimulate the sluggish or disordered organs into action [illegible] system. Not only do they cure the every day complaints of every body, but also formidable and dangerous diseases that have baffled the best of human skill. [illegible]

[illegible] complaints:— [illegible] Rheumatism, Dropsy, Heartburn, [illegible] Foul Stomach, Nausea, Indigestion, [illegible] the Bowels, and Pain arising therefrom, [illegible] all Ulcerous and Cutaneous Diseases [illegible] an excellent Medicine, Scrofula or King's Evil [illegible] purifying the blood and stimulating the system [illegible] complaints which it would not be supposed they could reach, such as Deafness, Partial Blindness, Neuralgia and Nervous Irritability, Derangements of the Liver and Kidneys, [illegible] kindred complaints arising from a low state of the body, or obstruction of its functions.

[illegible] put off by unprincipled dealers with some other pill they make more profit on. Ask for AYER'S PILLS, and take nothing else. No other they can give you compares with this in its intrinsic value or curative powers. The sick want the best aid there is for them, and they should have it.

No flag but the Old Flag—the Red White and Blue,
With the stars of a Union unbroken and true!
Arise and defend it! Ye sons of that race
Whose blood bought the banner your valor must save

FRIDAY MORNING, JULY 3 1863

WONDERFUL COINCIDENCE OF SENTIMENT.—The Northern sympathizers say a great deal about the bloody outrages inflicted upon their Southern brethren, and poorly conceal their anxious hopes that the Government may soon be compelled to make peace By way of compensation for this kind interest in their behalf, rebel organs express earnest sympathy for the Copperheads whenever treason meets its merited rebuke and punishment The Richmond Enquirer thus utters its wail as it witnesses their sufferings

Too clearly there is no law nor Constitution for that unhappy Yankee nation any more—If we had no other reason to refuse utterly and for all time every sort of association with that degraded people, we certainly could not think of sharing with them the sort of life they are now condemned to lead under Dutch Provost Marshals, and the lettres de cachet of an absolute master—and such a master!—The ghost of Democracy gibbers, mopes and hoots like an owl, and makes night hideous, but its body is in the grave There is no energy, no game, nor pluck left in the down trodden people potent enough to resist a Dutch Provost Marshal and his guard! Is it possible these vassals are the same men who once were American citizens—whom we once counted almost a species of fellow-country men? But this is a judgment of God

We cannot affect sympathy with those too late awakened Democrats who now shriek out that they have lost their liberties. On the contrary, we sympathize in a certain sense, with Lincoln, we pat him on the back, we bid him go ahead and muzzle refractory persons. They had no business to erect him into a Military Dictator, and bid him crush the rebellion, and fling all their own liberties under his feet upon that sole condition, and then murmur at the exercise of the powers they have vested in him. Shall the frogs rebel against the King Stork they prayed for? Shall the horse who has saddled and bridled himself, and requested Man to ride him in pursuit of his enemy, the stag attempt after ward to throw his owner? Will he kick?—Will he rear? Will he presume to take the bit between his teeth? We sympathize for our part with the horseman Sit fair and straight, oh rider! Dig in the spurs! Cut deep with the whip! And we wish you a good journey—to the devil

This is precisely the kind of feeling we have in witnessing the blind sprawling forth of helpless hands and maundering drivel about old buried principles, which form the action of Democratic meetings in that God-abandoned country to the north of us!

The Confederates suffer in this war, it is true, we have admitted that, and Yankee papers delight themselves and their readers by gloating upon the misery of our innocent people. But they are too stupid to see that the willing endurance of all the grievances and privations that we have suffered, and ten times as much if necessary, form only so much the clearer proof of the utter helplessness of that renewed alliance and federation which they do us the honor to urge upon us with so much perseverance! We will endure anything, everything, rather than that.

REBEL DESTITUTION AND CORRUPTION.—The Atlanta (Ga) Intelligencer, of May 15th, publishes a striking letter from a private in the rebel army The writer, after inveighing against the mercenary developments which he had witnessed in the army, thus speaks of his experience on returning home to Georgia

I met men, young men, in the full bloom and vigor of life, whom I had formerly known as loud mouthed patriots and red hot secessionists. These had either bought substitutes and were engaged in speculation and extortion, or they had availed themselves of snug berths in the Quartermaster's or Commissary's Departments, thus cowardly skulking from the foe and the field No wonder there are bread riots in all our principal cities. No wonder that starvation stares us in the face No wonder there are letters written by mothers and wives at home to soldiers in camp that would melt the hearts of any but the soulless extortioner No wonder that the poor soldier, who receives but the pittance of eleven dollars a month, after reading the letter from his suffering wife, should exclaim in the anguish of his spirit "What have I gained by exchanging the exactions of one Confederacy for the extortions of another? And why should I suffer and fight and die to defend the rights and property of men who are not only skulking at home to evade these dangers but also fleecing me and mine of our hard earned pittance to swell their already bloated coffers?"

BALTIMORE ON SLAVERY AND EMANCIPATION.—The City Union Convention of Baltimore has adopted resolutions declaring that Maryland should at every hazard remain in the Union; pledging unconditional support to the Government in any measures it may determine to be necessary in the prosecution of the war until its authority is acknowledged that the continued existence of slavery is incompatible with the maintenance of Republican forms of Government in the States in subordination to the Constitution of the United States, that the Emancipation Proclamation of the President ought to be made law by Congress in the hands of the President; that traitors have no right to enforce the obedience of slaves, and that against traitors in arms the President should use all men, white or black, in the way they can most be useful and to the extent they can be used, whether it be to handle a spade or shoulder a musket

STILL IN EXILE.—The Senate of Connecticut, lately, by a vote of twelve to eight, refused to restore to the Senate hall the portraits of ex Governors Toucey and Seymour, as evidence of their loyalty was not produced which, according to the resolution banishing the pictures, must be forthcoming before a restoration is in order.

Democracy and Monarchy

It has always been supposed that Democracy was the very essence of opposition to Monarchy; but, if the present Democratic candidate for Congressional honors in Washington Territory is a fair representative of the views and principles of that party—as he is presumed to be—then there has been a total misapprehension of, or an entire and wonderful change in, the principles of that party and Democracy and Monarchy are synonymous and convertible terms

Some days since, in the Portland Times was published a Card of Mr Quimby, an old and well known citizen of Oregon whose reliability is vouched for by such men as Governor Gibbs, George H Williams and others in which Mr Geo E Cole is made to say that "The American people are not capable of self government, and therefore he was in favor of a strong centralized form of government He thought the only stable form of government is that kind which took the power out of the hands of the people and lodged it with the rulers?" Mr Cole has not, that we are aware denied this statement but has rather sought to justify it

It is true, this is the last great experiment of self-government by the people Should we fail should such predictions as these with regard to the ability of self government by the people prove true, then, in all human probability the guardian angel of republican liberty, with welling eyes of tearful sorrow, will bid an eternal farewell to this gloomy world of ours, plume her pinions and poise herself for a long, sad journey to some other realm more congenial with her spirit and more worthy of her presence It may be that the world is about to be called upon to bid a long and last farewell to this bright and glorious light which has guarded our existence and guided our footsteps, as a nation, to glory to greatness and to honor, and that mankind, henceforth and forever, are to grope their way in the darkness and gloom of a political sky overshadowed by black, murky clouds surcharged with mental darkness and moral gloom, and wend their weary paths of life groaning beneath the heavy burdens and galled with the gnawing chains of Despotism

But what American heart, what free-born son of Columbia, bred in the cradle of republican liberty, educated in the broad, blazing noonday sunlight of freedom's institute, dare, at the peril of his memories, life and honor, draw such a picture or predict such a doom

Oh, no! Ye sons of American liberty, of whatever faith or party name, let us indulge in no such dark, gloomy, heart-sickening forebodings or predictions or suffer it to be done by any distant son of ambition or of treason, much less to trust and honor such

UNION

A Card.

TO THE PEOPLE OF WASHINGTON TERRITORY

The undersigned being informed that in the present canvass, it is charged by G E Cole Turney, and others, as follows

1st That the Union organization of this Territory was gotten up by Federal officials I hereby assert said charge is utterly false and untrue—that, with two exceptions, it was done without the knowledge of a single official

2d It is charged that the Union call was written by Elwood Evans, Esq. Mr Evans never wrote one word of said call, nor saw it until I sent it to him for publication, Said call was written in Vancouver, without the assistance or advice of any Dr Henrys, Dr. Turneys, or any political gamester or trickster whatever.

3d It is charged that many of the names to said call was appended without authority. When the call left the hands of the committee, there were 24 names appended by the written consent of the parties themselves, in most instances in others by the written advice of their friends, which we deemed reliable.

4th It is charged that the Union Convention of May 25th, was controlled by office holders In reply to this charge, I believe it to be false and a libel on the Convention I had opportunities to learn the views of the delegates, and was soon convinced there was no show for any office holder before that Convention Being a candidate myself, (and of course the only one that should have been nominated,) yet the Convention, perfectly furious, and having not the fear of God or Abraham before their eyes, absolutely slaughtered me on the political altar of the Convention, as a living sacrifice to appease their insatiate wrath for the sin, the unpardonable sin, of being friendly to one of the Federal Judges of the Territory. The nominee belongs to no political clique,—is an honest, capable and good man, whose devotion to our Government and bleeding country is above all suspicion

RUSH TO THE PACIFIC COAST.—A recent letter from Leavenworth says that there is an enormous exodus from Missouri for the Plains, and for Oregon and California The citizens are leaving in large numbers to escape the enrollment of militia, and the prospect of conscription The parties engaged in freighting across the Plains can procure any number of drivers for nothing, so great is the desire to reach a region where Provost Marshals do not come The offices of the great contractors present the curious spectacle of men begging the privilege of driving a team across the Plains for the simple remuneration of board and lodging—the former around a camp fire and the latter on the hard ground Never before were laborers so abundant.

The Pike's Peak country is this year making an enormous yield of gold The capitalists are getting fine returns for their investments. The fact that many of those now in the business are sending for more mills and machinery is strong proof that the mines are a success. A confidence is everywhere exhibited in the mining country, and Denver merchants assure me that they can now obtain credit as readily as if they hailed from Leavenworth or Santa Fe This was not the case two years ago

The bravery and desperation of the rebels in the late battles seem to be universally conceded Deluded as they are, their self sacrifice and devotion extort the admiration even, of Beecher They have been taught to regard the war as one of self defence, and they fight as the lion and tiger do for their whelps The Boston Traveler says

It is of no use for us to shut our eyes to facts We must search out the real cause of our defeats if we ever expect to remedy them We must remember that the rebels fight as we should if a Southern army was on our soil dispossessing us of our property, burning our dwellings, laying waste our lands and driving our wives and children from their homes "

It has always been the boast of the democratic party that "Democracy is the same everywhere—what is democracy in the North is democracy in the South " This unchangeable party has nominated an exiled traitor as its candidate for Governor of Ohio, and all democrats say "amen " What is democracy in Ohio is democracy in California. "See the inference?"—San Juan Press.

LATER FROM THE EAST.

PHILADELPHIA June 25th —The Enquirer has specials from McConnellsburg to the 24th. The town was occupied by rebel cavalry that evening

A despatch from Frederick, Md, the 24th says Rhodes's division, 10,000 strong left Hagerstown on Tuesday for Chambersburg Johnson's rebel division, 12,000 strong with [illegible] pieces of artillery, crossed at Shepardstown on Sunday Half of this force left Boonsboro on Tuesday for the North, and the other half went to Williamsport The aqueduct there has been destroyed by the rebels and also a number of bridges It is generally believed that the greater part of his army has crossed into Maryland since Friday, at Antietam, Shepardstown and Williamsport

Business is partially suspended in this city to day, and the receipt of shipments of goods by the Pennsylvania railroad temporarily suspended

A telegram from Frederick, Md the 25th says There is no doubt that more than half of Lee's army is now in Maryland advancing in three columns on Pennsylvania Each advancing column is followed by an immense wagon train, most of which is empty Ewell commands in person the centre advancing column Extra Billy Smith commands a brigade in Ewell's corps The wagon train which accompanied the centre column numbered several hundred wagons the majority of which were marked U S Notwithstanding Ewell's orders commanding his troops to respect the private property of Marylanders, foraging parties are scouring the country in every direction, seizing horses and cattle—Several thousand head of cattle, and a large number of horses have been gobbled up in Washington county alone, the neighboring counties suffering in like manner. Most of the cattle has been driven across the river into Virginia to feed that portion of Lee's army which still remains on the other side

A letter in town, dated at Washington yesterday afternoon, says 20,000 of Bragg's army are at Richmond doing garrison duty Lee has his whole army of 120,000 men in the immediate vicinity of the Potomac Bragg is to take care of Richmond while Lee takes care of Washington Richmond was reinforced on the 19th

Newbern advices of the 22d say there are no rebel troops in North Carolina, except cavalry

Several vessels sailed to-day in search of the pirate Tacony

The special telegraph to the World says, there are strong indications that Lee has not only achieved his grand project of massing his strength on this side of the Potomac, but is actually within a short distance of Washington he having moved a considerable force from Shepardstown and Antietam fords down the tow path of the canal or else along the roads from Boonsboro and Middleton to the vicinity of Poolesville, Brushville and Rockville From these points he has direct access to the rear of Washington and can, by an expert movement destroy the railroad between the Capital and Annapolis Junction There is cause for apprehension concerning the safety of Tyler's force, which has been holding Maryland Heights, although it is hardly possible that Tyler has been captured yet it is possible that his communication with the army in Virginia and with the force under Gen Schenck has been broken.

A brig arrived at Newbern from St Croix, June 6th, and reports that on the 8th, two steamers were seen in the offing, towards St Thomas fighting, when one of them suddenly disappeared It was supposed that she sank and the other steamer moved off The Vanderbilt was reported at St Thomas on the 9th

About 1,000 Texans made an attack on Lake Providence and were repulsed with some loss

Advices from Memphis to the 24th says —A cavalry expedition under Col. Wuzener, just returned from Panola, reports as follows He broke up a rebel camp, under Col George, at Panola, destroyed the railroad bridge at Jockaway and the trestle work just beyond and a portion of the road from the north He then crossed the Tallahatchie pursuing Chalmers beyond the Coldwater On the Helena road he captured 100 rebels, and paroled all the sick At Panola he destroyed all the army supplies, workshops, mills and tanneries, with an immense amount of forage and subsistence, took from 600 to 800 horses and mules and 500 cattle He passed through five counties, marched 200 miles, and lost one man killed and five wounded.

In the vicinity of Wilmington, near the borders of South Carolina, a large number of soldiers and conscripts are entrenched, successfully resisting the rebel authorities, having had three engagements already The rebel Secretary of War has ordered all the North Carolina troops into other States for immediate service on account of growing dissatisfaction among them Georgia and South Carolina troops are to take their place in the State.

The women and children on Cape Hatteras banks numbering nearly 100,000 are in a very destitute condition, and threatened with starvation Every man and boy there capable of bearing arms is voluntarily doing military duty The Union fortifications in this department are being made impregnable — Gen Foster has tendered Gen Dix and the authorities of Washington the services of all the nine months men in his department, who are ready at a moment's notice to move.

Reports from the Eastern coast show that the pirates are at work destroying all the fishing vessels they can get hold of

CAIRO June 26th —The steamer Prima Donna loaded with commissary stores and under the convoy of a gunboat, was fired on by guerrillas from the Arkansas shore on Sunday last. The guerrillas numbered from 200 to 300, and had six pieces of artillery —The first shot cut the Prima Donna's steam pipe rendered her helpless She was struck several times afterwards and considerably damaged A number of persons on board were killed or wounded She was finally towed out of reach The gunboat replied to the guerrillas' fire, but with what effect is not known, other than they soon got out of range

Reports are received from Vicksburg to the evening of the 21st, There had been heavy cannonading in that direction, but result not known

HARRISBURG June 26th—Gov Curtin by authority of the War Department will issue his proclamation to-morrow calling out 50,000 militia to defend the State

It is generally understood that Hooker's army is at Maryland Heights, and that he is preparing to meet Lee in person The writer who furnishes this information, says that he thinks Lee and Longstreet were at Hagerstown on Wednesday, as an immense army was bivouacked around there

HONOLULU, June 6 —This is the month when all the missionaries meet here from the Islands to hold their yearly meeting consequently a great many strangers are in town The Rev Dr Anderson Commissioner from the Eastern Churches, is here to attend this annual gathering Our people think very highly of him and are paying him marked attention

Col Dryer the American Commissioner, offers his furniture for sale at auction, preparatory to his departure upon the arrival of his successor, Mr McBride, now soon expected and of whom little good is said Strange that the U S Government cannot send us a proper gentleman to represent America It is a great mortification to Americans here not to have a suitable representative from our home Government—To S F Bulletin

THE NEWS.—The substance of the news, as evoked from a great deal of shadow, seems to be this The greater part of Lee's army has crossed the Potomac Its advance of some thirty thousand men has reached Carlisle in Pennsylvania, while its main body is massed in the rear along the Cumberland Valley Hooker's main body is reported as still lying south of the Potomac, on the east side of the Bull Run mountains, but his right rests at Maryland Heights That is the way the dispatches read but as it puts Hooker entirely in Lee's rear we doubt very much if the whole truth is told The intimation seems to be that Lee from Carlisle intends to turn off from the Harrisburg road and head for Washington If he should ever be so lucky as to get there he could not stay a day for our gunboats would shell him out, while a cordon of fresh armies would thrust him back again to the grim welcome of shot and shell In the rebel desperation it looks more probable that Lee will keep his main body strong ready to meet Hooker if he should fall upon his rear while his advance plunges on eastward with Philadelphia in its eye Of course ravage plunder and arson would be all they could expect to accomplish in their course—certainly not to hold any place they take But should they reach Philadelphia and leave their mark of desolation on its face they would hold their main point achieved—it would stimulate to new courage their fainting troops at the West and South, and enable them to claim new advances from their vexed allies abroad. But it must be remembered that what our own Government is doing to spoil this wonderful programme is not told us—that the telegraph is kept purposely dumb—that the Union drums are muffled the tread of their armies not echoed from the busy departments That we are fully prepared to meet to expel from free soil the invaders, and make their return pay rich toll of blood at the Potomac, we do not doubt —S F Bulletin, 27th June

EXPECTORANT
AND SANATIVE PILLS

HAVE BEEN BEFORE THE PUBLIC SO LONG and found such general favor in every region of the country where they have been used ... there is no place on the civilized globe where they have not been ... all ... at this time to direct attention to them through the medium of the press. Yet it is due to suffering humanity ... especially to that number ... who in the changeable climate of the Pacific Coast suffer from

Diseases of the Lungs & Thro,

... in CONSUMPTION many of whom ... not have used this ... that they should be ... the cases where its influence ... from which they are suffering. The EXPECTORANT

Operates immediately upon the Disease,
SURELY AND SPEEDILY ERADICATING IT

while the SANATIVE PILLS, by preserving regularity in the Bowels and giving a healthy tone to the other internal organs, aid and assist the perfect ... of the former.

Attention is asked to the following Certificates, selected at random from the mass in the possession of the proprietors.

UPPER UWCHLAND, Chester Co. Pa., Sept 15 1858
Dr D JAYNE—Having been afflicted with ASTHMA and BRONCHITIS and having the advice of some of the most eminent physicians whose skillful treatment of my case did not prove to be of any avail I obtained no relief for my suffering until I commenced the use of your EXPECTORANT. After taking it for about three months, I was entirely cured.
NATHAN PENNYPACKER

ASTORIA Long Island Jan 3d 1860
L W TERRILL Esq New York—Sir As you well know I had been afflicted with BRONCHITIS accompanied with ... tightness of the chest, and great difficulty in breathing for ... two months and I had almost lost all confidence ... power of medical science when at your friendly suggestion I began ... EXPECTORANT of Dr Jayne of Philadelphia. Three ... after having commenced to take it my cough had nearly subsided, the expectoration was easy and the breathing quite free.
I am now quite another man and my general health has never been better.
I remain your friend with esteem, your servant and friend,
J B MONT

WINFIELD, Tuscarawas Co. O., May 31 1860
Dr D JAYNE—Dear Sir One bottle of your Expectorant cured my daughter of the LUNG FEVER after having been beyond the hopes of recovery. During the attack she had a number of convulsions. She is now perfectly well.
J H HOFFMAN

BURLINGTON, Bradford Co Pa., July 23, 1863
Dr D JAYNE—Dear Sir My son was a year one and a half years afflicted with a disease resembling CONSUMPTION. For two years he was not able to labor. He was finally induced to try your EXPECTORANT and PILLS, and after taking 10 bottles and some PILLS, was completely cured and is now able to labor every day.
JOHN HENRY

We would add to the above that we sold to Mr Henry the medicine for his son and know that the statement is true.

A Lively Speech

Hon Frank Pixley the present Attorney General of California, is in the habit of saying what he thinks when he has a chance, and in the Convention the other day, though not a member from the county in which he resides, he endeavored to get a hearing and a seat as a proxy the following was his speech as reported in the Sacramento Union

Pixley addressed the Chair, but could not be heard on account of the confusion

Palmer, of Mono—I move that the Credentials be referred to the Judiciary Committee [Laughter]

Pixley [stentoriously]—If this Convention is not laboring under a prejudice that is perfectly chronic and disgraceful I would like to be allowed to say a word [Cries of 'Go on!'] I present here credentials from the County Convention of San Bernardino, attested by the officers of the Convention and also by a United States officer They are sent to me without my procurement—I claim no privileges from this Convention, but in the name of God and justice I do demand decency [Applause] On yesterday you kicked me out of one delegation and perhaps you have made votes by it—Again, when I was put before you as a nominee for the office of Attorney General, an office that I have held two years, and not disgraced, although you called candidate after candidate upon that stand, when my name was placed in nomination you made an exception and refused to allow me to be heard Now, gentlemen, I was a member of a party that came into this political copartnership within a year, bringing with it 30,000 votes, while the junior member of this copartnership brought but 27,000, and didn't bring half of them to the polls last Fall [Applause] Now sirs, you ignore here the Administration to which I belong, and when I asked to be a delegate from Sacramento, it was well known that the sole object I had in view was that I might be able to say one word for the Chief Magistrate of this Commonwealth who, as I know and you know, during the past two years has been a faithful Chief Magistrate of this State [Applause]—When, Mr President, from his own county, the county that he has honored, he had no representative—a man who in his official and private capacity has ever maintained and sustained the interests of that county, yet having no man in its delegation to represent him, or appear his friend, I, having been connected with him in his Administration sought to obtain a seat here, in order, that when he was nominated, to withdraw him from public life, so that the man whom two years ago, when we held to the creed of the Republicans, the Commonwealth honored with its highest office, might retire gracefully and with dignity; yet you denied him that privilege Six years ago, when we canvassed through the counties of this State, at a time when it was perilous to admit that we were Republicans, when some of this crowd that I see around me now placed my life almost in jeopardy because I was a Republican, at that time, I, sir, with Leland Stanford, and Phelps, and Sargent, canvassed the State, and I saw him then, like Spartacus, on bended knee, fighting back the hosts of Democracy [Applause] This is the man whom I sought to withdraw from public life, that we might let him out easy, not with disgrace, but like a gentleman, a statesman, and an honest man, as he is [Applause] That poor privilege was denied him, and Sacramento, with all its wealth and intelligence, where the magnificent mansion of the Chief Magistrate stands, where he is living to adorn social life, where he has cast all his political influence for the capital and for all the interests of the community—Sacramento was unwilling to allow me to say one word in vindication of, I undertake to say to say before God, the best Chief Magistrate that has ever been in the Commonwealth of California [Great applause and three cheers for Governor Stanford] Now, gentlemen, I am suggesting these things to the thinking, reasoning, intelligent portion of the Convention Then when I sought to come upon the stand, you refused me—I, who only two years ago, when I met John Conness and Edgerton upon the stump, and they denounced me for an abolitionist, when I had helped—I claim the right to say it, by the Eternal—when I had helped to build up the Republican party in this State at a time when the men that are now taking the plunder in this Convention, shrank from it like hounds, because they feared the denunciation of the Democracy. [Applause] Now, then, I say look at your record Let me show you what has been done upon that record ! Of the three, six, nine or a dozen officers that have been already nominated [cries of 'Time,' and 'Leave, leave,'] how many are Republicans? Gentlemen, those that are chosen here are chosen because of their opposition to the Old Guard [Applause] Now, gentlemen, look at another fact Out of the eleven that are nominated here, are four, five, six members of the Assembly and Senators of last winter that voted for John Conness for United States Senator These things are worth looking at [Confusion]

Conroy, of San Francisco, called the gentleman to order, and said he was attacking private character

Pixley—I attack no man's private character I do not doubt or deny the loyalty of John Conness, nor the sincerity with which he has entered upon his public career I believe in certain qualities of Mr Conness I believe that he goes into the Senate of the United States with a firm determination to uphold the cause of American liberty, I am prepared to do him justice, and I wish the generosity which has characterized the Republican element in this organization had met with generosity in return But how are we represented? Sir, to-day, in the midst of this fight, in the Senate of the United States stands drunken Jim McDougall, a Democrat of the olden stripe Then comes Conness, and next comes Higby—and I am glad he is nominated, because I think he is about right, I think he is one of my kind [applause and laughter], and then comes the honorable, the gifted and the intellectual Thomas Shannon, of Plumas [applause and laughter], making four Democratic representatives in Congress to one Republican as the result of the fight the Republicans have made [Applause] Now, gentlemen, these things are healthful to consider It is proper to consider them here for this is our funeral and it is nobody's else No Copperhead boy has a right to cry over our dead, but I am a member of the family and if my head is sore I have a right to show it [Laughter] Now, sir, there is another point—the city of San Francisco in which out of sixteen thousand votes polled eleven thousand solid Republicans Why, it was the life and breath, the length and depth and extent of the Republican party two years ago How do you stand on the record in regard to San Francisco? You have not one single representative from those eleven thousand votes—not one representative of her eighteen thousand Union votes this Fall!

Filkins of Yuba—Except the Governor

Pixley—You can't except the Governor, because that is a fraud, and fraud don't pay Mr Low is a citizen of the county of Yuba, and not a man here dare say he is not—not one He was sent to Congress two years ago from Yuba county, and remained there until he was appointed Collector of the port of San Francisco, and is now there, boarding at the Lick House If you call that San Francisco, then I am a resident of San Bernardino [Laughter] Gentlemen, I have had my say, and I am satisfied. I am most particularly delighted—

Filkins, interrupting—I have known Mr Low for the last twelve years, and I know he has not resided in Yuba for the last three years

Pixley—Because he has been to Congress He was nominated to Congress from Yuba county two years ago, and you know it, Mr Filkins, and I know it Gentlemen I am not sorry that this element of the Democracy has come so strong into our ranks I think you will believe me when I assure you it is with more pride and satisfaction that I stand in this Convention to-day with the proof around me of the recognition of those great principles for which I have contended than I would feel merely in the nomination of any man for any office [Applause] Two years ago I edited a newspaper for a month. It was the best edited newspaper ever published in the State, and I said then [great laughter, which overwhelmed the rest of the sentence] Well, gentlemen, I am going to edit another just as soon as I get money enough to be independent of newspaper advertisements. [Renewed laughter]

A Delegate in the rear—I hope the gentleman will take the stand, we are losing all those good things over here

Pixley took the stand amid applause and laughter, and continued—Here I am, gentlemen, a striking instance of the triumph of genius and pertinacity [Laughter] I never saw a crowd yet that I could not conquer if I could only get their eyes and ears Why is it, Mr President and gentlemen? It is because I am in earnest and sincere, and you know it It is because in all my political career no man could ever charge me with a dirty action or an underground transaction [Applause] My fight is open and aboveboard You defeated me for Attorney General, but I did not expect to win that office, because out of this intelligent San Francisco delegation of thirty, twenty five were Democrats and five Republican, to represent the 11,000 Republican voters I expected nothing of them, but I thank them for the thirteen or fourteen votes they gave me out of friendship I was going to say that this Convention pleases me, because I am better satisfied to find you, Mr President, and Conness and Higby, and men of that character, occupying this broad political platform, in recognition of those high principles that I have advocated, than I would be that I should be Attorney General, or anybody else should be Lieutenant Governor [Applause] Your ticket is a good one and a strong one, and you will find it so when you go before the people, with the exception of these drawbacks I have mentioned And you may cure one of them yet before you leave, by giving San Francisco a man to control the franchises of her bulkhead—a candidate for Harbor Commissioner That is more important to her than all your other offices, because upon it depends fifty millions of dollars, not of her wealth but yours. The water front of San Francisco belongs to you, and you have to elect a Harbor Commissioner, under the Oulton Bill to dispose of that franchise San Francisco—I do not know about her delegation here—her intelligence and wealth will ask at your hands the selection of a man who is anti Levi-Parsons and anti bulkhead [Applause]

If you do that you will still go far to conciliate the 12,000, more or less, Republican votes, and perhaps those other two institutions that we often find ourselves scouting when opposed to us, but always tremble in our knees lest they should oppose us—those two wings of political influence—the Evening Bulletin and the Alta [Laughter] One other reason why I am satisfied with this Convention, and I close I am particularly delighted to see some of those backsliding Republicans, men who stood by me till all hope of the spoils was lost, now doing the dirty work and getting kicked for their pains [Laughter] That pleases me, and these are among the thirty reasons why I think I ought to be allowed to represent the county of San Bernardino in this Convention [Great laughter and applause]

The question was taken and the motion prevailed

Calls were made for Pixley, and he came upon the stand and said—Gentlemen One of my virtues is never to bore anybody I have had my say [Applause]

ATTENTION, SOLDIERS!

AND THE FRIENDS OF SOLDIERS

We call the attention of all having relations or friends in the army to the fact that HOOFLAND'S German Bitters will cure nine tenths of the diseases induced by exposures and privations incident to camp life. In the lists, published almost daily in the newspapers, on the arrival of the sick, it will be noticed that a very large proportion are suffering from debility. Every case of that kind can be readily cured by Hoofland's German Bitters. [illegible] Bitters were freely used among our soldiers, hundreds of lives might be saved that otherwise will be lost.

We call particular attention to the following remarkable and well authenticated cure of one of the nation's heroes, whose life, to use his own language, "has been saved by the Bitters."

AYER'S

CHERRY PECTORAL,

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF

Colds, Coughs, and Hoarseness.

Brimfield Mass 20th Dec 1855

Dr J C Ayer [illegible] I do not hesitate to say the best remedy I have ever found for Coughs, Hoarseness, Influenza and the concomitant symptoms of a Cold, is your Cherry Pectoral. Its constant use in my practice and my family for the last ten years has shown it to possess superior virtues for the treatment of these complaints

EBEN KNIGHT, M D

A B MORTLEY, Esq, of Utica, N Y writes "I have used your Pectoral myself and in my family ever since you invented it, and believe it the best medicine for its purpose ever put out. With a bad cold I should sooner pay twenty-five dollars for a bottle than do without it, or take any other remedy."

Croup, Whooping Cough, Influenza.

Springfield, Miss, Feb 7, 1856

Brother Ayer I will cheerfully certify your Pectoral is the best remedy we possess for the cure of Whooping Cough, Croup, and the chest diseases of children. We of your fraternity in the South appreciate your skill, and commend your medicine to our people.

HIRAM CONKLIN, M D

AMOS LEE, Esq, Monterey, Ia, writes, 3d Jan, 1856 "I had a tedious Influenza, which confined me in doors six weeks; took many medicines without relief; finally tried your Pectoral by the advice of our clergyman. The first dose relieved the soreness in my throat and lungs; less than one half the bottle made me completely well. Your medicines are the cheapest as well as the best we can buy, and we esteem you, Doctor, and your remedies, as the poor man's friend."

Asthma or Phthisic, and Bronchitis.

West Manchester, Pa, Feb 4, 1856

Sir Your Cherry Pectoral is performing marvellous cures in this section. It has relieved several from alarming symptoms of consumption, and is now curing a man who has labored under an affection of the lungs for the last forty years.

HENRY L PARKS, Merchant

A A RAMSEY, M D, Albion, Monroe Co, Iowa, writes, Sept 6, 1855 "During my practice of many years I have found nothing equal to your Cherry Pectoral for giving ease and relief to consumptive patients or curing such as are curable"

We might add volumes of evidence, but the most convincing proof of the virtues of this remedy is found in its effects upon trial

Consumption.

Probably no one remedy has ever been known which cured so many and such dangerous cases as this. Some no human aid can reach, but even to those the Cherry Pectoral affords relief and comfort.

Astor House, New York City, March 5, 1856

Doctor Ayer, Lowell I feel it a duty and a pleasure to inform you what your Cherry Pectoral has done for my wife. She had been five months laboring under the dangerous symptoms of Consumption, from which no aid we could procure gave her much relief. [illegible]

ORLANDO SHELBY, of Shelbyville.

Consumptives, do not despair till you have tried Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. It is made by one of the best medical chemists in the world, and its cures all around us bespeak the high merits of its virtues.—Philadelphia Ledger

Ayer's Cathartic Pills,

THE sciences of Chemistry and Medicine have been taxed their utmost to produce this best, most perfect purgative which is known to man. Innumerable proofs are shown that these Pills have virtues which surpass in excellence the ordinary medicines, and that they win unprecedentedly upon the esteem of all men. They are safe and pleasant to take, but powerful to cure. Their penetrating properties stimulate the vital activities of the body, remove the obstructions of its organs, purify the blood, and expel disease. They purge out the foul humors which breed and grow distemper, stimulate sluggish or disordered organs into their natural action, and impart healthy tone with strength to the whole system. Not only do they cure the every-day complaints of every body, but also formidable and dangerous diseases that have baffled the best of human skill. While they produce powerful effects, they are at the same time, in diminished doses, the safest and best physic that can be employed for children. Being sugar-coated, they are pleasant to take; and being purely vegetable, are free from any risk of harm. Cures have been made which surpass belief were they not substantiated by men of such exalted position and character as to forbid the suspicion of untruth. Many eminent clergymen and physicians have lent their names to certify to the public the reliability of my remedies, while others have sent me the assurance of their conviction that my Preparations contribute immensely to the relief of my afflicted, suffering fellow-men.

The Agent below named is pleased to furnish gratis my American Almanac, containing directions for their use and certificates of their cures of the following complaints:—

Costiveness, Bilious Complaints, Rheumatism, Dropsy, Heartburn, Headache arising from a foul Stomach, Nausea, Indigestion, Morbid Inaction of the Bowels and Pain arising therefrom, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, all Ulcerous and Cutaneous Diseases which require an evacuant Medicine, Scrofula or King's Evil. They also, by purifying the blood and stimulating the system, cure many complaints which it would not be supposed they could reach, such as Deafness, Partial Blindness, Neuralgia and Nervous Irritability, Derangements of the Liver and Kidneys, Gout, and other kindred complaints arising from a low state of the body or obstruction of its functions.

Do not be put off by unprincipled dealers with some other pill they make more profit on. Ask for Ayer's Pills, and take nothing else. No other they can give you compares with this in its intrinsic value or curative powers. The sick want the best aid there is for them, and they should have it.

Practical and Analytical Chemist, Lowell, Mass.
